SUPERSEDES: G.O. 1420, 2020
REFERENCE: L.M.C. 2.76.445 NRS 29.35.04

1. Employees shall observe, obey, and refrain from committing any acts or omitting any acts that violate:
 - a. Federal, state, or local laws;
 - b. The written directives of the Lincoln Police Department;
 - c. Lawful orders of superior officers, including any order from a superior officer relayed by a member of equal or lesser rank. Members shall not obey any order from a superior officer that they know would require them to commit an illegal act.(12.1.3)
2. Employees shall treat superiors and subordinates with respect and shall be courteous and civil to co-workers at all times.
3. Employees will be courteous and tactful in the performance of duties, and shall not use insolent language or profanity with the public.
4. Employees will not express any prejudice concerning race, religion, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, color, politics, national origin, ancestry, age, handicap, disability, or personal characteristics.
5. Employees shall report for duty at the time and place required, ready to assume their duties, and will not be absent without proper leave or permission. Employees shall not leave their work assignment during a tour of duty without the permission of a supervisor.
6. Smoking, use of smokeless tobacco, vaping device, or vaping products is prohibited while on duty and in all department buildings, facilities, and all vehicles owned or leased by the City.
7. Employees shall not depart from the truth in making reports, affidavits, court documents, in giving testimony, or in connection with any official duties, except the use of deception in criminal cases is acceptable with great caution following these guidelines:
 - a. Deception may be used during an interrogation, pursuant to the guidelines of General Order 1770, "Interrogation of Suspects";
 - b. Deception may be used during police investigations where the safety of the officer or integrity of the investigation requires.
 - c. Deception may never be used to coerce an individual to waive their right to remain silent, coerce a consent to search, or to coerce waiver of any other statutory or constitutional right.
8. When required to do so, employees will make full, accurate, and truthful reports, both written and verbal.
9. The official business of the department shall be treated as confidential and members shall observe the following:
 - a. The identity of complainants, suspects, informants, witnesses or defendants must be protected. Their identities should be released to persons outside the Department only when authorized by department General Orders and laws on disclosure.
 - b. Employees are prohibited from using department information for their own or another's personal benefit or interest.
10. Employees shall not use their position or authority to advance personal interests.
11. Subject to reasonable discretion and the guidelines of these General Orders, officers shall take prompt and proper police action relative to violations of any laws or ordinances coming to their attention.
12. Employees acting in an official capacity shall not endorse, recommend or suggest a specific attorney, law firm, or business.
13. Employees shall not attend to their personal affairs while on duty.

14. Employees shall not convert any department property, evidence, or found property to their own use.
15. When representing the department, employees will not serve civil process or render assistance in civil court cases, except when the City of Lincoln is a party, or they have been subpoenaed in the proper manner. In all cases, a commanding officer and the legal advisor is to be notified.
16. Employees shall not sign for nor accept any certified or registered mail addressed to another person without specific authorization. The staff of the Property and Evidence Unit is authorized to sign for certified and registered mail, and shall ensure its delivery to the recipient.
17. Any employee becoming a party to or involved in a civil lawsuit relating to performance of duty; served a protection or harassment order, or arrested, cited, or charged with a crime, shall immediately report in writing the circumstances of the involvement to the chief of police.
18. Employees shall conduct themselves at all times, both on and off-duty, in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the Department. Conduct unbecoming shall include that which brings the department into disrepute or reflects discredit upon the employee as a member of the department, or that which impairs the operation or efficiency of the department or employee.
19. Employees are required to have a telephone and shall report a change of address or telephone number to their supervisor within 24 hours.
20. While it is not the intention of the department to unjustly or unlawfully restrict the political activities of employees, it remains necessary to assure that certain types of involvement are restricted in order that no partisan activity conflicts with the department's mission or individual objectives. Employees are prohibited from:
 - a. Using their official capacity to influence, interfere with or affect the results of an election.
 - b. Otherwise participating in public affairs to the extent that such endeavors impair the neutral and efficient performance of official duties or create real or apparent conflicts of interest.
21. Employees shall not accept money or payment that is to be given to Parking Services or to the Clerk of the Court as a fine.
